SPOKES-MEN

A GROUP of about 50 leading Brisbane business identities hope to raise up to $1 million for charity in a seven-day cycling odyssey pedalling off this Saturday.

Among those planning to ride more than 1000km from Grafton to Brisbane in the Chain Reaction Challenge Queensland are property industry folks such as Chesterton International managing director Brad Bennett, Thiess executive general manager Richard Kelleway and Herron Todd White executive director Tod Gillespie.

Also along for the ride will be Bennett & Philp Lawyers director

Michael Byrom, Morgans stockbroker Troy Fidler and BBC digital sales manager Mark Clough.

The Lycra-clad lads will be huffing and puffing for the benefit of autism charity AEIOU Foundation and the Starlight Children's Foundation before crossing the finish line at South Bank on May 9.
